

PUBLIC LEADER

SIXTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, JUNE 12, 1897.

ONE CENT.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. To publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can give his customer free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, so matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Cuts
Upon THE LEADER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Suppliers, occasional, festive, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, remembrance of respect, etc., THE LEADER will charge five cents a line, and hereafter this will be the invariable rate. This, however.

Does Not Include
notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.
Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Leads in THE LEADER is 15 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line notice inserted in the paper. It is not inserted. The customer complains about it. The editor explains that it is not inserted because it is not a "Business Lead" and is therefore not inserted. The customer complains that the editor is "killing" him. The editor explains that he is not "killing" him, but is merely following the rules. The customer complains that the rules are "unfair." The editor explains that the rules are "fair" and that the customer should follow them. The customer complains that the editor is "not following the rules." Eyesight

Is of such great value that one ought to take more than ordinary precautions to guard against every possible trouble.

If you have even a remote suspicion that there is any trouble with your eyes it will be for your own best interests to have your vision tested and trouble, if any, removed.

Very simple troubles may develop serious results if not properly treated.

Ordinary failing eyesight receives our most careful attention, both as to glasses and frames.

It's just as important to have the right frame as the right glass, and from our large stock we can give you the correct thing in either Gold, Silver or Steel.

We make no charge for examinations, and if yours is a case requiring the services of an oculist we will frankly tell you so.

NEWS FROM SOUTHERN GREAT HIGHWAY.

The Sherley passed up last night for Pomeroy.

The Bonanza passed down last night from Pomeroy and returns tonight.

The W. F. Nisbet will pass down tomorrow from Charleston for Cincinnati.

The rise in the river didn't amount to very much, and the old stream again failing at headwaters, with excellent prospects for a long stage of low water.

After due deliberation the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati Packet Line decided to not send out the Queen City to Pittsburgh today. The rise in the river did not amount to as much as was expected at first, and it was thought best to take no chances with the new boat, but to wait until there is more water in the river.

The trial trip of the Queen City demonstrated at once that she is one of the best handers ever built. Although her steam steering rigging was not working, she handled perfectly and called forth many expressions of satisfaction from practical steamboatmen on board. There was not a leak in any of her pipes or connections, and not a mistake was made in any of her machinery. She worked beautifully, making plenty of steam easily, and will be an economical user of coal.

WE'RE FOR AMERICANS!

A MONSTER snake, supposed to be a co-conspirator which escaped from a circus, is at large in Woodford county.

It was a wise thing for the big distilleries in that county to shut down for awhile.

Our "crime of '73" was not a circumstance compared with the "crime" which has just been committed against the dollar of the Peruvian daddies.

Our crime of '73 costated in the nominal expense of a dollar which had not in reality been coined for years, while the Peruvian "crime" which has just been committed provides that not only shall the coinage of Peruvian soles be suspended, but that the coins, when brought into the country, shall be melted up and returned to their owners in bars.

This is the result of Peru's long experience with the free coinage of silver. It has not only made good the standard, but proposes to melt down the coins brought into the country and pass them back to their owners in the form of bullion.

The theorists who insisted during the last fall's discussion of the silver question that the adoption of the silver standard would prove advantages to our foreign commerce will probably be surprised to find that it is this very subject which led both Japan and Peru to adopt the gold standard.

Statements by the officials of these two nations show in each case that they found that their foreign commerce was suffering by reason of the fluctuations in the value of their currency since foreigners in accepting their coin simply classed it as bullion, while they forced it upon the citizens of those countries at its face value in payment of their exports.

This testimony as to the real effect of a silver standard on foreign commerce, coming simultaneously as it does from two nations widely separated, is extremely valuable, and must show to the citizens of those countries at its face value in payment of their exports.

OUR WASHINGTON MAN.

THE LEDGER'S SPECIAL LETTER FROM THE CAPITAL.

Special Correspondent Public Ledger.

WASHINGTON, June 11th, 1897.

Events have moved rapidly in Washington this week. The Senate, realizing the pressure which is being brought upon it by the country for rapid action on the Tariff Bill, has held sessions early and late and pushed through the bill at a rate of speed absolutely unparalleled in the history of that ordinarily slow-going body.

To see a Senate controlled by no closure rules and no system such as that by which the House expedites business more at the speed which this one has moved upon a subject which ordinarily takes such a vast amount of time in that body is unprecedented.

THE SENATE PUSHING THE TARIFF.

It is sometimes possible, upon subjects which have no party bearing and do not involve vast consequences, to obtain speed in consideration by the Senate. But that a body not controlled by the Republican party, or by any other single party, indeed having no rules by which debate can be controlled, should be able to take up and make the progress upon a purely party measure, such as a Protective Tariff Bill, that has been made by the Senate since it began work upon this measure, is an entirely unheard of thing.

That this should have happened within a few months of the close of one of the most bitterly fought campaigns that the country has ever seen is the more remarkable. And that the people should go on complaining because still greater speed is not made under these remarkable circumstances can scarcely be accounted for, except upon the theory suggested by a gentleman recently quoted in this correspondence that the state of nervous prostration to which the Cleveland Administration brought the country has rendered the people to some degree irresponsible and unwilling to measure things expected by them that have happened in the past.

NO SUCH SPEED EVER MADE.

People who are impatient about the supposed delay of Congress in passing the Tariff Bill should look a little into the history of Tariff legislation in the United States. No Congress, even when both of its branches were controlled by a single party, has, within the memory of the present generation, made the progress which this one has with a Tariff Bill, and no President since Washington has had an opportunity to attach his signature to a Tariff Law within as brief a space of time after his inauguration as will William McKinley, unless some entirely unexpected development shall interrupt the progress towards its early completion.

There is a good reason to believe that the Tariff Bill will pass the Senate within the present month, and that President McKinley will have an opportunity to sign it within four months of the date of his inauguration. Even President Lincoln, who came into office under extraordinary conditions and circumstances, and with war in prospect, did not sign his first Tariff Act until August 9th, 1861. President William Henry Harrison called Congress in special session shortly after his inauguration on March 4th, 1841, because of the condition of finances and revenue, yet that Congress did not put its Tariff Bill upon the statute books until August 30th, 1842. President Polk, who was inaugurated on March 4th, 1845, did not sign his Tariff Act until July 30th, 1846. Pierce, who was inaugurated in 1853, signed his Tariff Act March 3d, 1857. Grant was inaugurated March 4th, 1869, and signed his first Tariff Act July 14th, 1870, and another June 6th, 1872. The Garfield Administration was inaugurated March 4th, 1881, yet the Tariff Act signed by President Arthur was dated March 3d, 1883. President Benjamin Harrison was inaugurated March 4th, 1889, and signed his first Tariff Act October 1st, 1890. Grover Cleveland and his Predecessor Congress came into power March 4th, 1893, yet the Wilson Tariff, which he refused to sign, did not become a law until August 28th, 1894. In nearly all of the above cases both branches of Congress were in accord with the Executive politically, a single party controlling Senate as well as House. When it is considered that the Republican party, which controls the House, has not but 58 of the 89 members of the Senate, the fact that its leaders have been able to make the speed which they have developed in the consideration of this and other important legislation should satisfy the most exacting, if they but take the trouble to compare present conditions and present progress with that of any other period in the history of the country.

BUSINESS CONTINUES TO REVIVE.

Notwithstanding the fact that the Tariff Bill has not yet been placed upon the Tariff books, and that the revival of industries and business cannot be expected to make itself apparent in a full degree until such action shall be had, the reports from business centers which reach members of Congress here are extremely gratifying.

David H. Keiser, which is so reported as a reliable business barometer, or rather cause which would affect its security, presents the most satisfactory trade statement for last week that has been made since the present business depression began. That statement was remarkable in its showing of the decided decrease in embargosments in all branches of trade and in reports of unusual activity in all the industries in anticipation of the passage of the Tariff Bill. The failures reported in most branches of trade are less in number than at any time in the last thirty-six months, while the volume of business transacted is, in quantity, larger than in 1892, the year of our greatest prosperity.

The slight reduction in value being due to the smaller prices paid for the articles of commerce handled.

When it is remembered that this happens before the new Tariff Bill gets upon the statute books, and with the industries of the country depressed by the imports of foreign goods at the rate of over a hundred millions a month, the improvement thus noted is very remarkable, and is proving very gratifying to those who are following the situation closely.

PROSPECT OF ACTION ON CUBA.

The return of Special Commissioner Calhoun from Cuba reveals interest in the situation in that unfortunate island and in the prospective action of the Administration. It is believed that President McKinley and Secretary Sherman are now likely to have sufficient information within a comparatively short time to enable them to act intelligently and in a way which will bring relief and encouragement and substantial aid not only to American citizens in Cuba, but to those who are struggling in behalf of the cause of liberty.

THE DEMOCRATS

Will Offer an Amendment to the Tariff Bill.

It Will Make Provisions for an Inheritance Tax of Two Per Cent.

Belief for Democrats Persons in the Districts of Columbia for the District of Columbia.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The democratic members of the senate committee on Finance Friday agreed to offer as an amendment to the tariff bill a provision for an inheritance tax. The amendment was prepared by Senator Turpie and was by him presented to the senate on behalf of the democratic minority. The principal provision of the amendment is as follows:

"That on and after the first day of January, 1898, and for five years thereafter, there shall be laid and levied a sum equal to two per cent of the value of every decedent's estate as an inheritance tax, to be paid by the executor, administrator and trustees thereof, or by the heirs, or legatees, when the value of such estate, as an inheritance, is $5,000 and upwards. These duties are imposed upon bequests made to religious, charitable, educational or other organizations, which may, by the laws of the state, territory or district in which the decedent was residing at the time of his death, be exempt from taxation."

The amendment prescribes methods of ascertaining the value of estates and of collecting the tax. These duties are imposed upon internal revenue collectors who are authorized to bring suit in the federal courts to collect the tax in default of payment. The amendment also prescribes the duties of the collector of the treasury in the event of a default in payment of the tax.

Under the direction of Commissioner General Sullivan, Capt. Geo. K. Davis, military attaché at Havana, has been ordered to proceed to El Paso, Tex., without delay, and with his clerk distribute substance stores for the relief of the destitute persons in the district over which the Rio Grande in that vicinity. Capt. Davis was one of the military officers who were in relief work along the Mississippi during the recent floods.

ASHBURN, June 11.—The Internal Revenue Bureau has prepared a schedule of the balance of unpaid claims for bounty on sugar manufactured and exported from August 1, 1894 to June 30, 1894, under the act approved March 3, 1895. Under this act $5,000,000 was appropriated and distributed on a pro rata basis, which left a balance of unpaid claims amounting to $1,095,186. An appropriation covering this amount has been made by congress, in favor of the 493 claimants, which will be available after July 1.

For the first time in many years the secretary of the navy has interposed his veto upon the application of a junior officer to leave the naval service. In the present case three of the cadets at Annapolis, George Weber, of Arkansas, H. Collins, of Pennsylvania, and L. Pratt, of Illinois, sought to resign. They had completed four years' service at the academy, the last year being devoted to the engineering branch and desired to leave to engage in private business.

Long, however, the navy department has been so busy in the construction of the new battleships that it has been unable to receive the resignations of these young men. They had been educated at the expense of the government and were to be paid $1,000 a year in return for their services. The cadets, upon admission to the academy are required to pledge themselves to serve the government for eight years, so these young men now will be obliged to take the usual two years' cruise, which will be followed by a four-year cruise, the end of which time they will receive their commissions as assistant engineers in the navy and regularly assigned to duty.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Spain, it is reported, will offer the Ruiz Irujo claim by putting in a counter claim on account of the smuggling of arms to Cuba by the filibuster Dantel.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The members of the committee on contingent expenses of the senate have agreed to report adversely the Tillman resolution for an investigation of the alleged speculations in sugar. It is not known when the report will be made to the senate. The report, it is understood, will go quite fully into the merits of the question, showing all the allegations that that proposed to be investigated.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Broker Edward Chapman spent the final night of his term in the district jail Thursday night. His sentence expired at midnight, but according to custom he was "allowed to remain" till Thursday morning. He accepted the final courtesy at the hands of Warden Leonard laughing, saying he should be sorry to requite the hospitality he had received by seeming to hurry off indignantly. He might have been so desired, have left in time to breakfast at the Arlington, but instead he breakfasted at the jail, and after finishing his meal spent an hour or more looking over his mail while waiting for his friends, who had arranged to call for him with a carriage by the course of the morning.

Many Coranah Arrived.

YOKOHAMA, June 12.—Many Coranah have been arrested at Beppu on charge of being implicated in a plot to influence the election to appoint his father regent and to oust the Russian and Japanese Facies.
